Sol. Miller advocates the re-election of Gov. Osborn.

Some newspaper men glory in great unmeaning words. They seem to study the art of obscurity. We clip a sentence from a paper of big pretensions published in the city of Chicago to illustrate what we say: "Idolatry consists in the ascription of all causation to entities,"

A telegram from Rockville, to the Terre Haute Express says: "The lady crusaders attended the Republican convention in Parke county en masse, this afternoon, asking that the convention adopt a temperance state platform and ticket. The convention decided to favor the crusaders."
